

Prayer Guide

EBA Prayer Focus: Wood Lane Baptist Church, Dagenham

Wood Lane is one of four Baptist churches in Dagenham and was opened in 1932 when the giant housing estate was built. Long-serving pastor Revd. David Horncastle retired last year. His wife, Revd. Alison Horncastle, is hospital chaplain at Queens in Romford and will be retiring in April, so they will be leaving for a life on the coast in May. Anthony Egbunike has stepped up to a leadership role and will take the church through the post-COVID transition. He is seeking Ministerial Recognition and hopes to start studying at Spurgeon's College in the autumn.

- Please pray for the changes at the church, David and Alison's retirement, and Anthony as he takes on the leadership.
- Where God is taking the church and his future leading and direction for the fellowship after lockdown ends
- All those who are part of the church and those struggling with the effects of COVID and lockdown issues.

Walton Parish Nursing

- Please continue to pray for Lorna, John and the volunteers. They all continue to follow up clients from the suspended groups.
- Pray for those clients who continue to be isolated because of the pandemic.
- Continue to pray for No Labels.

Coronavirus

Pray that the vaccination programme will continue smoothly and that the incidence of the vaccine, hospitalisations and deaths will continue to fall.

Schools

Please pray for Felixstowe School which fully reopened on Monday, that measures to reduce the spread of coronavirus will be effective. Continue to pray for Josh Hunt in his role as Chaplain.

Please pray for the primary schools in the town as well. It has been a busy week for all of them. Lift up the teachers and other staff before God.

Correction from last week - Corringham Baptist Church is in Essex not Cambridgeshire. Thank you to Sheila R for the correct information.

Jigsaw puzzles to share

Through this pandemic I have done a lot of jigsaw puzzles. It has been noted that jigsaw puzzles are good for concentration and enjoyment. I have a stack of 1000 piece puzzles, and wondered if others would like borrow one or two at a time. Phone me if you would like to pick up the puzzles, or if you would prefer I can bring them to your home. Once the Charity shops are open they will go there, so get them when you can. Enjoy! Linda
