

Fees for Weddings and Funerals

No fees will be applicable by the church for the services of the Minister or the use of the MRBC premises for either weddings or funerals. This will include preparation meetings, the officiation of the event, and people to staff the MRBC premises.

Users are invited to make a donation to the church if they so wish.

The following services are not provided by MRBC, but by direct arrangement between the users and those providing the service, and they may incur a charge from the provider.

- Provision of flowers above and beyond those regularly in the church building
- Musicians if no-one from the church is available
- Catering
- Any use of premises outside of MRBC at which the Minister is officiating e.g. in a crematorium or cemetery, although there will be no charge for the Minister's travelling expenses.
- An officiating Minister or other participants in the service from outside MRBC.
